One of the oldest sailing and rowing clubs in Hong Kong, Royal Hong Kong Yacht Club (RHKYC) is a friendly and culturally diverse club with three clubhouses, offers a range of facilities, both afloat and ashore.

Kellett Island in Causeway Bay is the Club's principle base, and acts as the parent site to the two smaller branches of the Club, at Shelter Cove near Sai Kung which is the base for cruisers, and Middle Island in Repulse Bay which is the home to dinghy sailors, sail training and rowing.

A comprehensive list of sailing and rowing courses are available to both members and non-members alike.
