

FUTURE LEADERS CLASS OF 2022

NEVILLE LAI

MANAGEMENT TRAINEE
THE HONG KONG JOCKEY CLUB

Neville Lai is currently a Management Trainee at the Hong Kong Jockey Club, a top ten charitable donor worldwide, where he specialises in Corporate Affairs and charity project ideation and implementation.

Prior to that, Neville was with the International Trade Centre, a joint agency between the United Nations and the World Trade Organisation, where he helped with project management in Geneva in scaling up African tech start-up ecosystem, and was sent to Myanmar to conduct community-based development fieldwork subsequently as a Consultant. He is proud member of the World Economic Forum Global Shapers Initiative where he contributes his free time in social impact in Hong Kong. As a China watcher and enthusiast in international development and diplomacy, he also contributes his writings on different media platforms.

Neville completed his bachelor's degree from Warwick University and SciencesPo Paris-Reims. He was one of the ten awardees of the Outstanding Student Contribution Award in his graduating year to recognise his significant contribution in global citizenship and internationalisation. During his years in education, he spent his time in Hong Kong, Mainland China, Indonesia, France, the UK and South Africa and his development work contributed further in Pakistan, Ghana and Kenya.