

FUTURE LEADERS CLASS OF 2022

SABINA LEUNG

SENIOR MANAGER, SALES AND OPERATIONS
CRYSTAL INTERNATIONAL GROUP LIMITED

Sabina is the Senior Manager, Sales and Operations of Crystal International Group, a leader in the apparel industry. With 8 years of experience, she leads local and overseas teams in managing sales, product development, merchandising and production to help global retailers in developing apparels that are sold worldwide.

In her day-to-day role, Sabina manages her business account with an annual turnover of USD $100M for one of the major global retail brands. Her devotion in customer engagement and supplier management brings her to travel to different countries, from Asia to the North America, that equips her with the experience to work with different cultures.

Sabina started her journey in the annual Associate Program with Crystal International Group where she navigates her career path in the highway to leadership. Most recently, Sabina is nominated to participate in an INSEAD Executive Leadership Program. She is also appointed as a coach for the new intake of the associates in consecutive years as to share her experience with the younger talent.

Sabina holds a Bachelor of Business Administration in Marketing from City University of Hong Kong and attended an exchange program with Université Paris Dauphine, France.
