

FUTURE LEADERS CLASS OF 2022

CHARLIE CHAN

SENIOR ACCOUNT MANAGER
AMCHAM HK

As the Senior Account Manager at AmCham HK, Charlie is responsible for member engagement, community building and business development in both membership and sponsorships. With her experience in programme curation and account management, Charlie curates events and fosters a senior executive network for corporate innovation, startups; DNI & sustainability, real estate, and more.

Prior to AmCham, Charlie was the Programming Manager at Garage Society, a regional co-working space headquartered in Hong Kong. She led programming and marketing for external communications for the Hong Kong market.

After earning her Bachelor of Social Sciences in Communications at Hong Kong Baptist University, Charlie started her career as a PR at Ketchum, a global communications consultancy, and served accounts for tech, travel, lifestyle product, logistic, and HR clients.

Charlie is passionate about workplace transformation, talent development, and sustainability. She is a firm believer of equality and diversity.
