

FUTURE LEADERS CLASS OF 2022

MOMO WONG

COUNSELOR
THE SAMARITANS

Momo Wong is the counsellor of The Samaritans, she has a strong passion working with youth, adults, and elderly.

She is a registered Counselling Psychologist with The Hong Kong Psychological Society and a full member of its Division of Counselling Psychology. In her counselling practice, she emphasizes the holistic life span development of a person and the importance of preventive work. She is keen on adopting an integrative strength-based approach that aims at increasing people's awareness and enhancing their personal growth and development.

She has solid clinical experience in the field of counselling, prior to her work at The Samaritans, she provides a well-rounded psychological counseling service to teenagers in university and secondary school. She explores individual's strength and assists people to adapt to their own life positively.

She feels grateful that her experiences allow her to grow rapidly through taking the challenging tasks. In her leisure time, she enjoys strolling in the nature and having tea with her family and friends.