

AmCham Women of Influence Awards 2021

Distinguished Judge

Anna-Marie Slot

Ashurst

Global ESG/Sustainability Partner

Anna-Marie is our Global ESG/Sustainability Partner and the Head of High Yield Debt with two decades of experience acting for investment banks and companies in a wide range of corporate finance and securities transactions, including high yield debt offerings, green bonds, liability management including consents and tender offers, refinancings and numerous securities transactions, such as Rule 144A and Regulation S debt and equity offerings, as well as mezzanine debt investments and senior credit facilities. She also leads the firm's ESG strategy through engagement with clients and internally.

Anna-Marie has been named as one of the world's top 300 female transactional lawyers in IFLR1000 Women Leaders for 2018, 2019 and 2020 for debt capital markets and banking. She is also listed as a leading individual for debt capital markets and high yield in Hong Kong in Asia Pacific Legal 50, IFLR 1000 and Chambers Asia-Pacific. Anna-Marie won The Best in Capital Markets at The Economy Asia Women in Business Awards 2018. She currently serves as the Board member at AmCham Hong Kong.

Prior to joining Ashurst, Anna-Marie worked in London and Hong Kong at a leading international law firm headquartered in the US. She has also worked in both New York and London for a major New York law firm.