

AmCham Women of Influence Awards 2021

Distinguished Judge

May Knight

Korn Ferry Advisory

President, Asia Pacific

May Knight is the President of Korn Ferry Advisory for Asia Pacific region. May has 30 years of experience from operational and consulting roles in Asia and Europe. Overall responsible for the firm's business including all the industries and solutions of Korn Ferry Advisory business in Asia Pacific. Before KFHG, she was Managing Director, Financial Services, Asia Pacific at Accenture.

Previously, May was Partner in Financial Services for Ernst & Young, Asia Pacific. She was instrumental in growing the firm's consulting business leading its Strategy, Customer & Growth and Digital solutions for Asia.

Earlier in her career, May held Asia regional leadership roles in a number of companies, where she worked in many aspects of the business in strategy, M&A, performance improvement, business transformation and innovation.

May has a Bsc in Civil Engineering, MBA from Liverpool Business School and received post graduate education at Harvard Business School. She is a Fellow of the Hong Kong Institute of Directors. She was a Judge for the Professional of the Year, Women of Influence Awards in Hong Kong since 2015 and she also represented in the Asia Summit of Fortune Most Powerful Women.