

AmCham Women of Influence Awards 2021

Distinguished Judge

Rebecca Turner Lentchner

Citadel and Citadel Securities

Head of Government & Regulatory Policy, Asia Pacific

Rebecca Turner Lentchner is the Head of Government & Regulatory Policy for Citadel and Citadel Securities in the Asia Pacific. In this role, she oversees the firm's public policy and engagement with regulators, policymakers, academics and trade and business associations across the APAC region.

Prior to joining Citadel, Rebecca was the Head of Government Relations and Public Policy for APAC at BNY Mellon. Previously, she built and managed the Policy and Regulatory Affairs team at Asia Securities Industry & Financial Markets Association (ASIFMA), served as a New Directions Returnship Fellow at Goldman Sachs and held policy roles in the US Congress, industry associations and not-for-profit organizations.

Rebecca currently serves as a Board Member of ASIFMA, Advisory Board Member of Women in Finance Asia, AIMA Regulatory Committee Member, and Public Policy Advisor for Hong Kong Marriage Equality.

Rebecca received her Master's in Public Policy from the Graduate School of Political Management at The George Washington University.
