

AmCham Women of Influence Awards 2021

Distinguished Judge

Dr. Sabrina Lin

The Hong Kong University of Science & Technology

Senior Advisor to the President

Sabrina Lin is Senior Advisor to the President at the Hong Kong University of Science and Technology, responsible for select cross university strategic projects and initiatives, including IT strategy, campus development, donor stewardship, industry collaboration, and professional and executive education.

Sabrina joined HKUST after 30 years in the IT sector in Silicon Valley and Asia Pacific countries. She has held Corporate Vice President positions at Fortune 100 companies, as well as co-founded of start-up companies. She began her career as a software engineer. A native of Hong Kong, Sabrina completed her undergraduate and postgraduate studies in statistics and psychology at Stanford University. A mother of four, she enjoys jogging, hiking and exploring the world with her family.