

AmCham Women of Influence Awards 2020

Distinguished Judge

Lale Kesebi

human-at.work

Founder and CEO

Lale Kesebi is Founder and CEO of human-at.work. She is a sought-after strategist, innovator, and transformation coach. Her work focuses on how to create high performance cultures and how to make transformation stick for companies.

Lale began her career in Canada as a litigation lawyer and has lived in Asia for 22 years. Prior to her current venture, she worked in both profit and not-for profit sectors in leadership roles culminating in nearly 15 years at Li & Fung, the last 8 of which she was a member of the executive team leading transformation, building out innovation and designing the social impact of the company through purpose across teams in 40 countries. She regularly speaks on leadership, innovation, and strategy that influences transformation and in 2017 was invited to deliver the commencement address at the University of North Carolina - Chapel Hill's Kenan Flagler Business School. In 2018 she gave a TED talk on "Why it's time to bring yourself to work".

Lale is a Trustee of the Asian University for Women, a Board Member of The Women's Foundation in Hong Kong and Advisor to several Asian start-ups disrupting incumbents. She is a graduate from Dalhousie University in Canada and lives in Hong Kong with her husband and three children.