

AmCham Women of Influence Awards 2019

Distinguished Judge

Anna-Marie Slot

Ashurst

Partner

Anna-Marie is our Global Head of High Yield and a Finance partner with two decades extensive experience acting for investment banks and companies in a wide range of corporate finance and securities transactions, including high yield debt offerings, green bonds, liability management including consents and tender offers, refinancings and numerous securities transactions, such as Rule 144A and Regulation S debt and equity offerings, as well as mezzanine debt investments and senior credit facilities. Her practice also includes advising companies on US securities law matters.

Anna-Marie is listed as a leading individual for debt capital markets and high yield in Hong Kong in Asia Pacific Legal 500 and IFLR 1000 and recognised as a band 2 ranked leading lawyer in Chambers Asia-Pacific. She is also been named as one of the world's top 300 female transactional lawyers in IFLR1000 Women Leaders for 2018 for debt capital markets and banking. Anna-Marie won The Best in Capital Markets at The Economy Asia Women in Business Awards 2018. She has been shortlisted for Securities Lawyer of the Year at The Asia Legal Awards 2017 and Best in Capital Markets at the Euromoney Asia Women in Business Awards 2015, 2016 and 2017. Anna-Marie and her team were also shortlisted for Law Firm of the Year: High Yield at The Asia Legal Awards 2017.

Prior to joining Ashurst, Anna-Marie worked in London and Hong Kong at a leading international law firm headquartered in the US. She has also worked in both New York and London for a major New York law firm.