

AmCham Women of Influence Awards 2019

Distinguished Judge

Belinda Lui

Former Asia-Pacific Head of Public Policy, AT&T / Warner Media

Following AT&T's acquisition of Time Warner (now Warner Media), Belinda Lui managed the Asia-Pacific government affairs office for all business units of AT&T, including Warner Media (and its divisions Warner Bros., HBO, and Turner Broadcasting including CNN).

Ms. Lui is admitted as a barrister and solicitor in New South Wales, Australia. She was a solicitor with international law firm Baker & McKenzie in Sydney and Hong Kong.

Prior to AT&T/ Warner Media, Ms. Lui was in-house legal counsel at Microsoft Hong Kong where she also handled Microsoft's government-relations issues and spoke to the press regularly about IP policy.

Over the years, Ms. Lui has served on a number of boards. She was Chairperson of the Business Software Alliance in Hong Kong and Macau. She served on the boards of the US-ASEAN Business Council, National Center for APEC, American Chamber of Commerce Hong Kong, AVIA Asia Video Industry Association, and the Canadian International School of Hong Kong. Currently she sits on the board of the International Women's Forum-Hong Kong.