

AmCham Women of Influence Awards 2019

Distinguished Judge

Lynne Anne Davis

FleishmanHillard

President & Senior Partner, Asia Pacific

Based in Hong Kong since 1997, Lynne Anne Davis oversees FleishmanHillard's fast-growing, award-winning Asia Pacific network of 17 owned offices and three brands in 10 countries. FleishmanHillard is one of the world's largest full-service communications agencies, bringing clients fresh thinking, strategic expertise and creative power for authentic, break-through communications.

Lynne Anne is a sought-after speaker and commentator on reputation management, creativity, leadership and a passionate advocate of Shared Value.

She served as Jury President for PR at the Cannes Lions International Festival of Creativity and was named "Global Women's Champion" by NAFE in 2013. She was voted as one of "Asia's Most Admired Agency Leaders," and debuted in PRWeek's Global Power Book in 2015. The same year, she was among the inaugural Debrett's Hong Kong 100, which lists influential people in Hong Kong who have inspired change and innovation, shaping their environments for the collective benefit of society. Most recently she received the Gold Standard Award for Professional Excellence from PublicAffairsAsia.

She chairs the Board for Asian University for Women's Hong Kong Support Foundation and serves on its Board of Trustees. Based in Bangladesh, AUW is educating women from some of the most marginalized communities in 15 countries across Asia and the Middle East and equipping them as leaders to drive change in corners of the world that need it most.
