

AmCham Women of Influence Awards 2019

Distinguished Judge

Philip Eisenbeiss

Executive Access Ltd.

Partner

Philip Eisenbeiss joined Executive Access Ltd., Asia's largest financial search firm, in 2001 and has been focusing on private and institutional wealth management. He was promoted to Partner and has consistently been top-ranked in the Asiamoney Headhunter Polls.

He started his career in finance with UBS in Zurich, working for the bank for nearly 9 years in investment and corporate banking. Assignment included Zurich, Hong Kong and Shanghai. He also spent two years in Thailand, initially working as an Investor Relations Consultant for Krung Thai Bank before joining the advertising agency Lowe Lintas in Business Development and Strategic Planning.

Philip is the author of the first biography of the legendary opera impresario Domenico Barbaja (Bel Canto Bully, Haus Publishing: 2013). It has been translated in Italian: Il Padrino del Belcanto (EDT: 2016). Naxos Music issued a music CD featuring selections from operas commissioned by Barbaja.

Philip also writes about opera for www.interlude.hk and is a Board Director of Opera Hong Kong.

Philip obtained both undergraduate (BA, History) and graduate degrees (MIA, Political Economy) from Columbia University in New York. He speaks fluent English, German, Swiss-German, French and Spanish, as well as intermediate Italian and basic Mandarin.

---