Presents

2018 CHAIRMAN'S INAUGURAL ADDRESS

FRIDAY, JANUARY 19, 2018

12:00 – 2:00pm

The Murray, Hong Kong, a Niccolo Hotel
22 Cotton Tree Drive
Central, Hong Kong

Please join us as AmCham's incoming Chairman, Mr. Jack Lange, identifies, highlights and addresses the pressing issues impacting the business communities in Hong Kong and Asia Pacific. Most importantly, he will share insights on AmCham's key priorities for 2018.

Jack Lange served as AmCham Vice-Chairman in 2017, and has served on the American Chamber's Board of Governors since 2014.

Note: As our Special Guests at this luncheon, AmCham will host the U.S. Consul General Kurt Tong, and more than 20 Foreign Service Officers at the U.S. Consulate in Hong Kong from the political and economic section, foreign commercial service, public affairs, regional security, consular section, and foreign agricultural sections to thank them for another year of close cooperation with the Chamber's Board, Committees, and members on their priority issues plus a wide range of other programmatic and advocacy activities. Excellent networking opportunities throughout the event.
